PROFILE

Recent Computer Science and Artificial Intelligence graduate (Pharos University, June 2026) with hands-on, shipped experience across design and development: UI/UX and graphic design, frontend web development (React.js), and mobile development (Flutter). Comfortable owning a project end to end — from Figma research and wireframes through a built, working product — across web, mobile, and brand/visual work. A portfolio of real, live projects across healthcare, institutional, and freelance client work rather than concept work alone (nadahossny.vercel.app). Adaptable across roles and quick to pick up what a project needs.
